GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Glendale Community College will be offering a shadow day on April 23 and April 30 for students who are interested in attending. The shadowing includes attending lectures for various classes, a debriefing session, Q&A session and insight from current G.C.C. students regarding the paths that they have and are taking for their careers goals. Lunch is included. Sign-ups and permission slips are in Room B308. If you've already signed-up we need your permission slips!!

GEF and Pacific Theaters Strike-up Business Partnership

The Glendale Educational Foundation thanks Pacific Theaters Glendale 18 for their support and generous donation of $10,000 to support programs and projects for Glendale Unified students. The donation will come from the opening week concession proceeds. Please come out to support our business partner by seeing a movie with your family during the week of Friday, May 2 through Thursday, May 8 at Pacific Theaters Glendale 18 The Americana at Brand, 322 Americana Way. Make sure to buy some concessions while you are there. GEF President John Sadd recommends the $1 Popcorn and the $2 hot dogs!

This is Beat Hoover Week at the swimming pool. For 14 straight years we have beaten Hoover in both boys and girls. We expect to dominate them tomorrow in the GHS pool beginning at 3:15. It is our final home meet of the season. Come out and spend a relaxing day at the pool.

Juniors! Occidental College has a Summer Marine Biology Program available for you! The dates are June 29-August 2 and costs include lectures, field work, labs, room and board, and entertainment! And when you are all done you will have also earned 4 college credits!! See Mr. Kolodinski in J396 for brochures... First come, first served!
