

Glendale High School English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC) NEWS

ELAC stands for the English Language Advisory Committee. The primary function of this committee is to establish a school level committee to advise and inform parents, the community, school administration, and our staff, about issues involving our English Language Learner students.

Glendale High School ELAC Parent Meetings for 2011/2012:

Wednesday, November 16, 2011

Wednesday, January 18, 2012

Wednesday, March 14, 2012

Tuesday, May 29, 2012 & ELAC Award Ceremony

California English Language Development Test (CELDT) – Annual state mandated exam currently testing for 2011/12 year. Results will be available in February, 2012.

Please mark your calendars and we look forward to meeting all of you at the above dates! Translations will be available. Any questions, please contact:

Mrs. Miriam Wazirkajoyan, Teacher Specialist
Categorical Office, 4113, ext. 4133